

Press Release 7/21/15

For immediate release, ATTN: Community, Education, and Arts Editors

Contact: Jonathan Schroerlucke, Communications & membership Coordinator, 608-263-3320, jschroerlucke@wyso.music.wisc.edu

Note to Editors: additional high-resolution photos available from Jonathan Schroerlucke

Concert in the Park Hosted by The Gialamas Company

Wednesday, August 12, 2015

Old Sauk Trails Park, 1200 John Q. Hammons Drive, Madison, WI

5:00 pm – 10:00 pm

Featuring WYSO's Youth Orchestra

The Wisconsin Youth Symphony Orchestras is proud to be a part of Concert in the Park, Hosted by The Gialamas Co. for yet another season. For seven consecutive years, WYSO has been invited by The Gialamas Company to be a part of this spectacular event. This special FREE concert has recently become a highlight of the summer. The Youth Orchestra, consisting of members ages 14 – 18, will perform at Old Sauk Trails Park on a lovely summer evening. The Youth Orchestra, under the direction of WYSO Music Director James Smith, will perform six pieces: Festive Overture by Shostakovich, Movements 1 & 4 from Rachmaninoff's 1st Symphony, Excerpts from Wagner's Die Meistersinger, the 1st movement from Schubert's 8th Symphony, Piston's Suite from the Incredible Flutist, and Over the Rainbow. The evening is capped off with a marvelous fireworks display.

Before the event there will be an instrument petting zoo, face painting and Ice Cream Social. Tables, food and drinks are available for purchase. For more information visit www.gialamas.com. Make sure to stay after the event for a spectacular fireworks show. Set up lawn chairs, layout blankets, and put out your picnic baskets as you enjoy all of the music and activities this FREE event has to offer.

For additional information please contact WYSO at 608-263-3320 or e-mail at wyso@wyso.music.wisc.edu.